Proof of Life & Proof of Age Inquest by Judicial Coroner
For Paul-Kenneth: House of Cromar

Introduction

COMES NOW, Paul-Kenneth: House of Cromar, a man, one of the people of Utah, being of sound mind and memory, claiming all natural and common law rights, titles and property both real and private nunc pro tunc, for the Estate named or known as Paul Kenneth Cromar, aka all other derivative names, [idem sonans] and spellings thereof, sui juris, donor, grantor, settlor, testator, sole lawfully appointed absolute general instituted rightful Executor, and sole lawful Hæres/Heir/Herus of the said Estate and all trusts derived therefrom (herein "Declarant"), upon this Proof of Life and Proof of Age Inquest by Judicial Coroner (hereafter "Inquest") in a Court of Record to wit:

This is a proof of life and proof of age Inquest, to determine if the said Declarant has been found to be living, has come of full age, is the sole lawful Hæres/Heir/Herus of the Paul Kenneth Cromar legal Estate and is competent to handle Declarant's own affairs.

Declarant declares, executes, testes, claims and admits, on and for all public and private records, in all courts, in all realms, by necessity of life and limb, under penalty of perjury, under his seal, the forgoing and the following to wit:

Premise and Background

Declarant now finds the need as a matter of life and limb, to rebut, reverse, and correct certain presumptions regarding Declarant's lawful private status, as said status relates to, directly effects, and is in regards to, Declarant's respective estate, by proper judicial inquest. This Inquest is being executed and adjudicated to end all unwarranted, unwanted and unnecessary administration of Declarant's estate and to fulfill the requirements needed for Declarant to have full livery of seisin of same from all who now hold any property, titles, effects and things of said estate. Declarant finds the need to rebut certain presumptions regarding Declarant's status in relation to Declarant's estate and record these findings, for all private and public records, as those facts are found to be true and settled in this Court of Record, by a petite jury, impaneled by the appointed Judicial Coroner for the House of Cromar. If need be, Declarant shall use these said facts and findings to sue out Declarant's livery, claim Declarant's entire estate and have livery of seisin of same from known and unknown guardians and parties who now administer Declarant's said estate by and under the presumption of death, abandonment, infancy, wardship, incompetency, pledges, oaths, bonds, trusts, contracts, will or any other means in any inferior court, probate, or otherwise.

Declarant now states, to a candid world, the following reasons why Declarant must come upon this Inquest to wit:

There is and has been a systematic usurpation and degradation of our status as free sovereign people and with it continual trespasses upon our substantive, natural law, and common law rights by foreign agents, corporate courts, legislators, representatives, delegates, special administrators, private enforcement agencies, and quasi-governmental agencies operating under color of law and acting against we the people, within our Republics, who are operating upon our allodial lands without our consent, in excess of any lawful jurisdiction to do so, by implementing, perpetuating and using the following presumptions against the Declarant herein and all other American people:

1. That we the people of our respective states, born as Americans, were abandoned by our mothers at foundling hospitals and therefor are to be seen as wards of the State; and,
2. That we the people of our respective states, born as Americans, have abandoned our estates to those same foundling hospitals, or the State, or the UNITED STATES, or any of the fifty States in the Union, or to any other governments, government agencies, banks, trust companies, courts, societies secret or public, or other entities or parties knowingly or willingly at any time in the past, present or future; and,
3. That those of us who were born to parents in wedlock are presumed to be bastards under the common law without rights to inherit because of the way certain paperwork is filled out at the said foundling hospitals regarding the unlawful contracts known as Birth Certificate registration forms; and,
4. That we the people of our respective states, born as Americans, have exchanged our unalienable, substantive, common law, natural law, and protected rights under the state and federal constitutions, for civil rights granted from corporate governments foreign to the American people; and,
5. That we the people of our respective states, born as Americans, even after having long surpassed the age of twenty one, have not come of full age, but are seen, by the aforementioned governments and agencies, as infants ("persons" 1 USC 8) that need protection or administration, and who may not, under said presumption, have and hold allodial title to lands, houses, effects or private property; and,
6. That we the people of our respective states, born as Americans, are seen by all courts and government agencies, after seven years of no claim having been made upon our estates, to have the presumption used against us that we have willfully abandoned our estates and our legacy, at the aforementioned foundling hospitals, or to said corporate governments and therefore, as a result of this presumption, our said estates end up being administered by the said governments and agencies thereof stated above, having never held a proper lawful inquiry or inquest to ascertain whether we be alive or dead. Furthermore those said governments and agents thereof, thereby profit from this probate fraud by trading the "income" of our estates between themselves, in IOLTA trust accounts and in the CRIS accounts, thereby being guilty of probate fraud, collecting administrative fees, and creating billions of dollars in fraudulent bonds, all whilst stealing billions of dollars in fines and fees by the perpetuation of this fraudulent activity, from we the people, all whilst denying us our redemption of our own estates; and,

7. That we the people or our respective states, born as Americans, are seen as the trustees of our own property and estates, only having right of usufruct under filthy roman civil law, and that we are only to be seen as unknown infants without lawful claim to our own property, estates, lands, rights, effects and our very bodies by this same presumption; AND because of these said declared presumptions being used against we the people Declarant also finds the following to be true:

WHEREAS, it appears there is an agenda to administer the Estate of Declarant, and the estates of the people of The United States of America, under the presumptions of death, (that we the people are dead and lost), infancy, (that We the people have not come of full age and are therefore to be seen as infants) and abandonment (wherein it is presumed that we the people have abandoned our own estates and legacy); and,

WHEREAS, it appears that said agenda is being implemented, in the landmass commonly known as Utah, as well as all the other States in the Union; and,

WHEREAS, it appears that said agenda of false information, misleading words and grammar, and the use of violence against the people, to implement said agenda at all costs against the people of The United States of America and Declarant, under the guise of low intensity conflict, has caused and is causing damage, harm, loss, and injury to the people of The United States of America and Declarant; and,

WHEREAS, it appears that said agenda has been and is being perpetuated by members of foreign agencies, foreign agents and societies which includes but are not limited to, members of the B.A.R., also known as British Accreditation Registry, The Knights Templar from the inner temple and middle temple within the City of London, and the members of the society known as the Jesuits, which for all intents and purposes should all be required to register as foreign agents under the Foreign Agent Registry Act (FARA), as evidenced in the congressional record, in the proceedings and debates of the 76th congress, third session, titled: "Steps Toward British Union, a World State, and International Strife – parts I-V, REMARKS OF HON. J. THORKELSON OF MONTANA IN THE HOUSE OF REPRESENTATIVES Monday August 19.1940"; and,

WHEREAS, it appears that said foreign agents are using private for profit courts for the implementation of this agenda which have their own Dunn & Bradstreet numbers and do not proceed according to the course of the common law; and,

WHEREAS, it appears that this said agenda has been the bane of all English speaking realms from the time before the signing of the Magna Carta, as evidenced in article three, four, and five of the Magna Carta, and as evidenced in the history of the Court of Wards and Liveries, later evidenced by the implementation of the corporate Court of Wards, run by the East India Trading Company and the implementation of the Cestui Que Vie acts making all dead to the law; and,

WHEREAS, it appears that the administration of the living bodies of we the people are being administered as property of these presumed abandoned estates of the people and that this activity by said agents is a form of human trafficking, subject to the authority of Executive Order 13818 and that said activity is subject to a common law tort that is compensable at law, in a court of record; and, WHEREAS, it appears there is no bond of record in existence, nor any source of indemnification regarding the herein named Estate, that Declarant has ever been made aware of, nor is there any bond covering said agents activities spoken of, that are causing damage, harm, loss and injury by the implementation of said agenda, by said unlawful administration by probate fraud; and, WHEREAS, there has been a systematic usurpation of the administration of the estates and the bodies of the people by presumption of death, abandonment, infancy or pledge all stemming from the "registration" of the births of the people as chattel at foundling hospitals, explained in detail in the following quote from Edward Mandell House in a correspondence to President Woodrow Wilson as:

"[Very] soon, every American will be required to register their biological property in a National system designed to keep track of the People and that will operate under the ancient system of pledging. By such methodology, we can compel People to submit to our agenda, which will affect our security as a chargeback for our fiat paper currency. Every American will be forced to register or suffer being unable to work and earn a living. They will be our chattel, and we will hold the security interest over them forever, by operation of the law merchant under the scheme of secured transactions. Americans, by unknowingly or unwittingly delivering the bills of lading to us will be rendered bankrupt and insolvent, forever to remain economic slaves through taxation, secured by their pledges. They will be stripped of their rights and given a commercial value designed to make us a profit and they will be none the wiser, for not one man in a million could ever figure our plans and, if by accident one or two would figure it out, we have in our arsenal plausible deniability. After all, this is the only logical way to fund government, by floating liens and debt to the registrants in the form of benefits and privileges. This will inevitably reap to us huge profits beyond our wildest expectations and leave every American a contributor to this fraud which we will call "Social Insurance (SSI)." Without realizing it, every American will insure us for any loss we may incur and in this manner; every American will unknowingly be our servant, however begrudgingly. The People will become helpless and without any hope for their redemption and, we will employ the high office of the President of our dummy corporation to foment this plot against America.", and,

WHEREAS, it is a fundamental principle of law that no one is above the law including, but not limited to, all government actors, agencies, personnel, contractors, officers and the like, being of a corporate nature or de jure government, it is fact that: The government immunity clause only applies to government actors when they are performing in accordance with their sworn office and duties defined by their office in good faith, and if they act in a commercial capacity, the UNITED STATES SUPREME COURT has ruled that: "public officials are to be held liable for actions done in excess of their jurisdiction, or failure to perform required actions", in the case of MILLBROOK v. UNITED STATES () 477 Fed. Appx. 4; THEREFORE because of the truths of the aforementioned facts stated above Declarant has found it to be a matter of life and limb to delegate proper power to and appoint a Judicial Coroner for Declarant's honorable House so that said Judicial Coroner can convene and empanel a petite jury, and preside over this Court of Record, wherein this proper Inquest has been brought forward and filed, to determine the status of the Declarant stated herein, to find that the facts declared herein be true and to reverse, rebut and correct the said presumptions stated above, that have been and are being used against Declarant, so that Declarant shall have proper redemption of Declarant's estate.

12. RESERVATION OF SOVEREIGNTY: "Even if the Tribe's power to tax were derived solely from its power to exclude non-Indians from the reservation, the Tribe has the authority to impose the severance tax. Non-Indians who lawfully enter tribal lands remain subject to a tribe's power to exclude them, which power includes the lesser power to tax or place other conditions on the non-Indian's conduct or continued presence on the reservation. The Tribe's role as commercial partner with petitioners should not be confused with its role as sovereign. It is one thing to find that the Tribe has agreed to sell the right to use the land and take valuable minerals from it, and quite another to find that the Tribe has abandoned its sovereign powers simply because it has not expressly reserved them through a contract. To presume that a sovereign forever waives the right to exercise one of its powers unless it expressly reserves the right to exercise that power in a commercial agreement turns the concept of sovereignty on its head. Merrion, Et Al, dba Merrion & Bayless, Et Al v. Jicarilla Apache Tribe, Et Al. (1982) 455 U.S. 130, pp.144-148.
13. "But if the heir of any of the above persons shall be under age and in wardship, when he comes of age he shall have his inheritance without relief and without fine." [Magna Carta, Article 3]
14. "The administrator, moreover, so long as he may have the custody of the land, shall keep in order, from the issues of that land, the houses, parks, warrens, lakes, mills, and other things pertaining to it. And he shall restore to the heir when he comes to full age, his whole land stocked with ploughs and wainnages, according as the time of the wainnage requires and the issues of the land will reasonably permit." [Magna Carta, Article 5]
15. "Henceforth nothing shall be given or taken for a writ of inquest in a matter concerning life or limb; but it shall be conceded gratis, and shall not be denied." [Magna Carta, Article 36]
16. "No freeman shall be taken, or imprisoned, or disseized, or outlawed, or exiled, or in any way harmed--nor will we go upon or send upon him--save by the lawful judgment of his peers or by the law of the land." [Magna Carta, Article 39]
17. "To none will we sell, to none deny or delay, right or justice." [Magna Carta, Article 40]
18. "If anyone shall have been disseized by us, or removed, without a legal sentence of his peers, from his lands, castles, liberties or lawful right, we shall straightway restore them to him. And if a dispute shall arise concerning this matter it shall be settled according to the judgment of the twenty-five barons who are mentioned below as sureties for the peace..." [Magna Carta, Article 52]
19. "...our justices, sheriffs, mayors, and other ministers, which under us have the laws of our land to guide, shall allow the said charters pleaded before them in judgment in all their points, that is to wit, the Great Charter as the common law..." 20. "The governments are but trustees acting under derived authority and have no power to delegate what is not delegated to them. But the people, as the original fountain might take away what bound to all of the terms and Clauses herein.

Julliard v. Greenman, 110 U.S. 421.
- o) The entire Magna Carta of 1215 as it applies to Claimant being a member of the peerage spoken of in same.
- p) "Thus, a person who enters on real property lawfully pursuant to a conditional or restricted consent and remains after his or her right to possession terminates and demand is made for his or her removal becomes a trespasser from the beginning, and the law will then operate retrospectively to defeat all acts done by him under color of lawful authority." - q) "To presume that a sovereign forever waives the right to exercise one of its powers unless it expressly reserves the right to exercise that power in a commercial agreement turns the concept of sovereignty on its head." - x) RESERVATION OF SOVEREIGNTY: "Even if the Tribe's power to tax were derived solely from its power to exclude non-Indians from the reservation, the Tribe has the authority to impose the severance tax. Non-Indians who lawfully enter tribal lands remain subject to a tribe's power to exclude them, which power includes the lesser power to tax or place other conditions on the non-Indian's conduct or continued presence on the reservation. The Tribe's role as commercial partner with petitioners should not be confused with its role as sovereign. It is one thing to find that the Tribe has agreed to sell the right to use the land and take valuable minerals from it, and quite another to find that the Tribe has abandoned its sovereign powers simply because it has not expressly reserved them through a contract. To presume that a sovereign forever waives the right to exercise one of its powers unless it expressly reserves the right to exercise that power in a commercial agreement turns the concept of sovereignty on its head. Merrion, Et Al, dba Merrion & Bayless, Et Al v. Jicarilla Apache Tribe, Et Al. (1982) 455 U.S. 130, 131, 102 S.Ct. 894, 71 L.Ed.2d 21 (1981)

[In re Duncan, 139 U.S. 449, 11 S.Ct. 573, 35 L.Ed. 219; Minor v. Happersett, 88 U.S. (21 Wall.) 162, 22 L.Ed. 627. Black's Law Dictionary, 5th Ed. 626.]
- z) A dollar as defined herein shall mean: "Dollars and Units" – each to be of the value of a Spanish milled dollar as the same is now current and to contain three hundred and seventy-one grains and four sixteenth parts of a grain of pure or four hundred and sixteen grains of standard silver. 1 U.S. Stat. 246, Sec. 9 (1792).

- cc) "A court of probate, in the exercise of its jurisdiction over the probate of wills and the administration of estates of deceased persons, has no jurisdiction to appoint an administrator of the estate of a living person, and its orders, made after public notice, appointing an administrator of the estate of a person who is in fact alive, although he has been absent and not heard from for seven years, and licensing the administrator to sell his land for payment of his debts, are void, and the purchaser at the sale takes no title, as against him." Scott v. McNeal, 154 U.S. 34 (1894)

Stipulation and Understanding of Definitions

- 9) Bound Trustee(s) now agree to understand and stipulate to the following definitions:
 - a) COURT OF RECORD: It is a judicial tribunal having the following attributes "(1)-(6)" defined below with authorities cited:
 - (1) A judicial tribunal having attributes and exercising functions independently of the person of the magistrate designated generally to hold it [Jones v. Jones, 188 Mo.App. 220, 175 S.W. 227, 229; Ex parte Gladhill, 8 Metc. Mass., 171, per Shaw, C.J. See, also, Ledwith v. Rosalsky, 244 N.Y. 406, 155 N.E. 688, 689] [Black's Law Dictionary, 4th Ed., page 425, 426]

- (2) Proceeding according to the course of common law [Jones v. Jones, 188 Mo. App. 220, 175 S.W. 227, 229; Ex parte Gladhill, 8 Metc. Mass., 171, per Shaw, C.J. See, also, Ledwith v. Rosalsky, 244 N.Y. 406, 155 N.E. 688, 689] [Black's Law Dictionary, 4th Ed., page 425, 426]
 - (3) Its acts and judicial proceedings are enrolled, or recorded, for a perpetual memory and testimony. [3 Bl. Comm. 24; 3 Steph. Comm. 383; The Thomas Fletcher, C.C.Ga., 24 F. 481; Ex parte Thistleton, 52 Cal 225; Erwin v. U.S., D.C.Ga., 37 F. 488, 2 L.R.A. 229; Heininger v. Davis, 96 Ohio St. 205, 117 N.E. 229, 231] [Black's Law Dictionary, 4th Ed., page 425, 426]
 - (4) Has power to fine or imprison for contempt. [3 Bl. Comm. 24; 3 Steph. Comm. 383; The Thomas Fletcher, C.C.Ga., 24 F. 481; Ex parte Thistleton, 52 Cal 225; Erwin v. U.S., D.C.Ga., 37 F. 488, 2 L.R.A. 229; Heininger v. Davis, 96 Ohio St. 205, 117 N.E. 229, 231.][Black's Law Dictionary, 4th Ed., page 425, 426]
 - (5) Generally possesses a seal. [3 Bl. Comm. 24; 3 Steph. Comm. 383; The Thomas Fletcher, C.C.Ga., 24 F. 481; Ex parte Thistleton, 52 Cal 225; Erwin v. U.S., D.C.Ga., 37 F. 488, 2 L.R.A. 229; Heininger v. Davis, 96 Ohio St. 205, 117 N.E. 229, 231.] [Black's Law Dictionary, 4th Ed., page 425, 426]
 - (6) The only valid seal of any court of record, or other court in which Claimant is a plaintiff, counter-plaintiff, claimant, petitioner, accuser, or complainant is Claimant's own House Seal which is affixed below to Claim.
- b) INFERIOR COURTS: Inferior courts are those whose jurisdiction is limited and special and whose proceedings are not according to the course of the common law." Ex Parte Kearny, 55 Cal. 212; Smith v. Andrews, 6 Cal. 652
 - c) COURT: An agency of the sovereign created by it directly or indirectly under its authority, consisting of one or more officers, established and maintained for the purpose of hearing and determining issues of law and fact regarding legal rights and alleged violations thereof, and of applying the sanctions of the law, authorized to exercise its powers in the course of law at times and places previously determined by lawful authority. [Isbill v. Stovall, Tex.Civ.App., 92 S.W.2d 1067, 1070; Black's Law Dictionary, 4th Ed., page 425]
 - d) MAGISTRATE: The word "magistrate" does not necessarily imply an officer exercising any judicial functions, and might very well be held to embrace notaries and commissioners of deeds. Shultz v. Merchants' Ins. Co., 57 Mo. 336.
 - e) CLAUSE, contracts. A particular disposition which makes part of a treaty; of an act of the legislature; of a deed, written agreement, or other written contract or will. When a clause is obscurely written, it ought to be construed in such a way as to agree with what precedes and what follows, if possible. Vide Dig. 50, 17, 77; Construction; Interpretation.
 - f) CONDITION, contracts, wills. In its most extended signification, a condition is a clause in a contract or agreement which has for its object to suspend, to rescind, or to modify the principal obligation; or in case of a will, to suspend, revoke, or modify the devise or bequest. 1 Bouv. Inst. n. 730. "A condition is any portion or agreement which regulates what the parties have a mind should be done, if a case they foresee should come to pass." Co. Litt. 201 a.
 - g) CONDITION, persons. The situation in civil society which creates certain relations between the individual, to whom it is applied, and one or more others, from which mutual rights and obligations arise. Thus the situation arising from marriage gives rise to the conditions of husband and wife that of paternity to the conditions of father and child. Domat, tom.2, liv. 1, tit. 9, s. 1, n. 8. 2. In contracts everyone is presumed to know the condition of the person with whom he deals. A man making a contract with an infant cannot recover against him for a breach of the contract, on the ground that he was not aware of his condition.

- h) OBLIGATION. In its general and most extensive sense, obligation is synonymous with duty. In a more technical meaning, it is a tie which binds us to pay or to do something agreeably to the laws and customs of the country in which the obligation is made. Just. Inst. 1. 3, t. 14. The term obligation also signifies the instrument or writing by which the contract is witnessed. And in another sense, an obligation still subsists, although the civil obligation is said to be a bond containing a penalty, with a condition annexed for the payment of money, performance of covenants or the like; it differs from a bill, which is generally without a penalty or condition, though it may be obligatory. Co. Litt. 172. It is also defined to be a deed whereby a man binds himself under a penalty to do a thing. Com. Dig. Obligation, A. The word obligation, in its most technical signification, ex vi termini, imports a sealed instrument. 2 S. & R. 502; 6 Verm. 40; 1 Blackf. 241; Harp. R. 434; 2 Porter, 19; 1 Bald. 129. See 1 Bell's Com. b. 3, p. 1, c. 1, page 293; Bouv. Inst. Index, h. t.
6. A civil obligation is one which has a binding operation in law, vinculum juris, and which gives to the obligee the right of enforcing it in a court of justice; in other words, it is an engagement binding on the obligor. 12 Wheat. It.: 318, 337; 4 Wheat. R. 197.
14. A principal obligation is one which is the most important object of the engagement of the contracting parties.
16. An absolute obligation is one which gives no alternative to the obligor, but he is bound to fulfil it according to his engagement.
20. A determinate obligation, is one which has for its object a certain thing; as an obligation to deliver a certain horse named Bucephalus. In this case the obligation can only be discharged by delivering the identical horse.
31. The obligation is both personal and real when the obligor has bound himself, and pledged his estate for the fulfilment of his obligation.
- i) PRIMARY. That which is first or principal; as primary evidence, or that evidence which is to be admitted in the first instance, as distinguished from secondary evidence, which is allowed only when primary evidence cannot be had.
2. A primary obligation is one which is the principal object of the contract; for example, the primary obligation of the seller is to deliver the thing sold, and to transfer the title to it. It is distinguished from the accessory or secondary obligation to pay damages for not doing so. 1 Bouv. Inst. n. 702.
- j) TERM, contracts. This word is used in the civil law to denote the space of time granted to the debtor for discharging his obligation; there are express terms resulting from the positive stipulations of the agreement; as, where one undertakes to pay a certain sum on a certain day and also terms which tacitly result from the nature of the things which are the object of the engagement, or from the place where the act is agreed to be done. For instance, if a builder engage to construct a house for me, I must allow a reasonable time for fulfilling his engagement.
2. A term is either of right or of grace; when it makes part of the agreement and is expressly or tacitly included in it, it is of right when it is not part of the agreement, it is of grace; as if it is not afterwards granted by the judge at the requisition of the debtor. Poth. on Oblig. P. 2, c. 3, art. 3; 1 Bouv. Inst. n. 719 et seq.
- k) The term "records" shall mean all records, system of records, library catalogs, lists, files, optical, handwriting, typewriting, printing, photostating, photographing, photocopying, electronic and physically stored information and every other means of recording including letters, words, pictures, sounds, or symbols, or combinations thereof, as well as papers, maps, magnetic or paper tapes, photographic films or prints, microfilm, microfiche, magnetic or punched cards, discs, drums, or other means of recording or retaining meaningful content.

- l) ESTATE. 1. In its most extensive sense, it is applied to signify every thing of which riches or, fortune may consist and includes personal and real property; hence we say personal estate, real estate. 8 Ves. 504. 2. An estate, in common law, is the net worth of a man at any point in time living or dead. It is the sum of a man's assets – legal rights, interests and entitlements to property of any kind – less all liabilities at that time. 3. All that a man owns in law.
- m) FREEHOLD, estates. An estate of freehold is an estate in lands or other real property, held by a free tenure, for the life of the tenant or that of some other person; or for some uncertain period. It is called liberum tenementum, frank tenement or freehold; it was formerly described to be such an estate as could only be created by livery of seisin, a ceremony similar to the investiture of the feudal law. But since the introduction of certain modern conveyances, by which an estate of freehold may be created without livery of seisin, this description is not sufficient.
2. There are two qualities essentially requisite to the existence of a freehold estate. 1. Immobility; that is, the subject-matter must either be land, or some interest issuing out of or annexed to land. 2. A sufficient legal indeterminate duration; for if the utmost period of time to which an estate can last, is fixed and determined, it is not an estate of freehold. For example, if lands are conveyed to a man and his heirs, or for his life, or for the life of another, or until he shall be married, or go to Europe, he has an estate of freehold; but if such lands are limited to a man for one hundred or five hundred years, if he shall so long live, he has not an estate of freehold. Cruise on Real Property t. 1, s. 13, 14 and 15 Litt. 59; 1 Inst. 42, a; 5 Mass. R. 419; 4 Kent, Com. 23; 2 Bouv. Inst. 1690, et seq. Freehold estates are of inheritance or not of inheritance. Cruise, t. 1, s. 42.
- n) FREEHOLDER. A person who is the owner of a freehold estate.
- o) FREEMAN. One who is in the enjoyment of the right to do whatever he pleases, not forbidden by law. One in the possession of the rights enjoyed by, the people generally.
- p) SHALL. Used to express a command or exhortation, used in laws, regulations, contracts, or directives to express what is mandatory.
- q) Dollars as defined herein shall mean: – each to be of the value of a Spanish milled dollar as the same is now current and to contain three hundred and seventy-one grains and four sixteenth parts of a grain of pure or four hundred and sixteen grains of standard silver. As per [1 U.S. Stat. 246, Sec. 9 (1792).]
- r) SOVEREIGNTY. The union and exercise of all human power possessed in a state; it is a combination of all power; it is the power to do everything in a state without accountability; to make laws, to execute and to apply them: to impose and collect taxes, and, levy, contributions; to make war or peace; to form treaties of alliance or of commerce with foreign nations, and the like. Story on the Const. §207.
